

User management

The eQuATIC analysis is only available for users from the own institution. At first an institutional admin should be created by the eQuATIC administrator. Once the account is created, users can register for this institution and it is up to the institutional administrator to decide these users get access to the tool and what role they have (institutional admin or institutional user).

User manual user management pdf version

User manual us...agement(1).pdf

Related articles

- Frequently asked questions
- Data uploads
- Data glossary
- User management
- Training material