

Can we compare MyAcademicID results with Google login?

MyAcademicID enables more ways for students to login. With MyAcademicID, students can use their institutional accounts in the context of the Erasmus Services and link them with their Google accounts and national eIDs, if they wish to do so. This enables the use of academic attributes, such as the European Student Identifier and the Student Affiliation, which are key for the digitisation of the student mobility process.