

Can I exchange data with an institution that is not using EWP

The answer is no. You and your partner both need to be connected to the EWP Network and be known in the EWP registry. This can be done through connecting your HEI's software by implementing the EWP APIs; through a third-party provider that makes the connection for all of its clients or by using the EWP Dashboard.