

Training material

The European University Foundation, Ghent University and ECA have created a training scheme that was tested first in Ghent (October 19 – 31, 2018). Based on the evaluation of both the participants and the trainers, the training methodology, instructions and material was further improved and offered a second time in Prague (June 24-26, 2019).

On this page you can find the training material with accompanying notes.
