

My institution is not part of eduGAIN, how can our students still use Erasmus service

If this is the case please contact your Research and Education Identity Federation. Students can still authenticate using Google login as an alternative. The project partners are working in a follow-up project on a fall back option to provide institutions an alternative way of enabling such institutional accounts in case they are not able to join the eduGAIN federation via their national Research and Education Identity Federation.