

Who are the partners of MyAcademicID

The partners of MyAcademicID represent the European higher education community at large (higher education institutions, student service providers, higher education technology providers) and public authorities from member states. Most of the partners are active contributors to projects operating under the European Student Card initiative of the European Commission. The full list of partners can be found here.