We are a large and decentralised HEI - how can all the faculties and coordinators work with the system

The current version of the Dashboard also includes a multiuser system where different levels of permissions can be granted.

This multiuser system is being developed further so that in the future faculties can see/work with their students only (currently all the students of a HEI are displayed together, although they can be filtered by subject codes).